Beauty Fit organic coffee and sea kelp scrub, $65

Don't mind mixing your fitness routine with a little beautifying? Beauty Fit is a new salon at Fitness First Platinum, Westfield Bondi Junction, run by Gwen Giorla. I went along to try out its organic coffee and sea kelp body scrub. (It's being offered for the special price of $65 to NINE to FIVE readers until July 30.) The caffeine component of the scrub particularly intrigued. Giorla explains: "The organic coffee granules help with cellulite, circulation and detoxification."

My verdict? My skin felt divine afterwards! The salon is open Fridays and Saturdays. You don't need to be a Fitness First member to head in either. Beauty Fit, Level 6, Fitness First Platinum Westfield, Bondi Junction. Ph: 0416 323 498.

Heidi Klum Collection diamond encrusted ring, $900

From her starring roles in Victoria's Secret parades to hosting and producing America's Project Runway, Heidi Klum has been at the forefront of fashion for awhile. So, we knew it wouldn't be long before she brought out her own jewellery line. It uses the clover – a symbol of good luck – as its signature. Pieces range from affordable to the indulgent, like this ring!

Bronzalicious Tried & Tested

Being opposite Wynyard station perfectly positions this beauty spa for indulging in a little lunchtime Goddess treatment. I tried the Spa Sampler, a taste of the best bits for $99. It started with a petite facial with the yummiest smelling products and a lovely massage, so relaxing. Then my body was scrubbed and rinsed in a hydrating Fiji Soufflé exfoliation in preparation for the next step, the Bronzalicious Secret spray tan. From the 16 colours on offer I chose caramel hoping for a natural glow to my paleness. I had no problems breathing while being airbrushed as previously experienced elsewhere. I felt perfectly comfortable and appreciated all the attention to hygiene. I really feel I should take my new tan on a holiday as it's begging for attention.
